And Away We Go

Ten Honeymoon Destinations Near and Far

It's easy to forget things in the postwedding scramble – like your passport. With or without it, you can still get away.

Get High

For Here: Wheatleigh, Lenox, Massachusetts

Explore the quaint Berkshires by day; by night, nest in The Aviary, the hotel's two-story suite with a limestone wet room, antique soaking tub, and bedroom in the trees.

To Go: Kanopi House, Blue Lagoon, Jamaica

Leaving your well-appointed wood-frame bungalow in the jungle doesn't mean you're losing luxury. Even on a guided bamboo raft tour down the Rio Grande river, the bar and snacks raft is never far behind.

Roam Free

For Here: Amangiri Resort and Villas, Lake Powell, Utah

Think saying "I do" was a rush? Try the rock climbing, canyoning, fishing, and extreme spa-ing at this 34-room, 31-villa oasis in a private valley neighboring the Grand Canyon.

To Go: Uxua Casa Hotel, Trancoso, Brazil

Just getting to this fishing village is a thrill-seeking adventure. Once you conquer reservations for the Gulab Mahal cottage, recoup on the beach or by the aventurine quartz pool.

Spring Eternal

For Here: Solage Calistoga, Napa Valley, California

Wind your way through wine country and settle into the hotel's Capella Suite. Bask in the area's many natural hot springs or relax indoors in the suite's hot tub or deluxe bathtub (for two, naturally).

To Go: Evason Ma'In, Ma'In, Jordan

The therapeutic waters here feed the Dead Sea – and the main pool at the Six Senses Spa. If that doesn't make the trek worth it, the honeymoon suite, with views of Wadi Mujib gorge, will. Bonus: There's a separate sleeping area for bodyguards.

Hide Out

For Here: Hidden Pond, Kennebunkport, Maine

This seaside town is the last place on earth they'd think to look for you. Lay claim to either the Lucky or Silent Pine private cabin. Then book it to the tent spa for a companion massage.

To Go: Serinn House, Cappadocia, Turkey

After all the wedding planning, you might feel like crawling into a cave. You can, at this five-room hotel made entirely of stone.

Float On
For Here: The Yachts of Seabourn, Eastern Seaboard
 You'll need your sea legs for a boutique cruise leaving from ports along the coast. You might be able to spare only the nine days it takes to get from New York City to Quebec, but 27 will get you across the Atlantic.

To Go: Zambezi Queen, Kasane, Botswana
 Beat around the bush via four-by-four, visit nearby villages by tender boat, or simply enjoy Chobe National Park from the decks of the well-appointed fourteen-cabin riverboat.
